§89.11 PRINTING RESOLUTION

On motion of Mr. MANTON, by unanimous consent, the Committee on House Administration was discharged from further consideration of the following concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 248):

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That there be printed with illustrations as a House document the eulogies and encomiums of the late President of the United States, Richard M. Nixon, as expressed in the House of Representatives and the Senate. Such publications to include the text of the funeral services held in Yorba Linda, California; and that thirty-two thousand five hundred additional copies shall be printed, of which twenty-two thousand one hundred and fifty shall be for the use of the House of Representatives and ten thousand three hundred and fifty shall be for the use of the Senate; or such numbers of copies of the document as does not exceed a total production and printing costs of $500,000.

SEC. 2. The copy shall be prepared and bound in such style as the Joint Committee on Printing may direct.

When said concurrent resolution was considered.

Mr. MANTON submitted the following amendment in the nature of a substitute which was agreed to:

Strike out all after the resolving clause and insert the following:

That the eulogies and encomiums for the late President of the United States, Richard M. Nixon, as expressed in the House of Representatives and the Senate, together with the text of the funeral services for the late President in Yorba Linda, California, shall be printed as a House document, with illustrations and suitable binding. The document shall be prepared under the direction of the Joint Committee on Printing.

SEC. 2. In addition to the usual number, there shall be printed the lesser of—

(1) 32,500 copies of the document, of which 22,150 copies shall be for the use of the House of Representatives and 10,350 copies shall be for the use of the Senate; or

(2) such number of copies of the document as does not exceed a total production and printing cost of $500,000, with distribution to be allocated in the same proportion as described in paragraph (1).

The concurrent resolution, as amended, was agreed to.

By unanimous consent, the title was amended so as to read: "Concurrent resolution providing for the printing of eulogies, encomiums, and funeral services for the late President of the United States, Richard M. Nixon."
